ICICI Bank is proud to present the Prithvi Festival 2003.

Prithvi's continued effort in promoting the best traditions in theatre, while engaging in a constant process of experimentation and innovation is reflective of ICICI Bank's initiatives in the financial sector. The diversity of the festival offerings and its creative and vibrant spirit truly symbolize the corporate banking personality of ICICI Bank.

We hope all theatre lovers will have a fascinating and enjoyable twelve-day festival experience.

50 years of linking various tourist destinations on the national network, promoting numerous art and cultural events, serving remote and inaccessible areas and rising to the occasion in times of national emergencies and calamities - Indian Airlines has consistently reaffirmed its credo: "We have a nation to live up to."

Juhu Hotel, through its activities at the Razz Rhino, has always been pushing the envelope in the field of entertainment. We promote DJs and bands of different genres - many whom we have supported have now gone ahead and won laurels in their fields.

Mutuality is central to the work of the British Council. Partnering Prithvi is a step forward in building lasting relationships between the U.K. and India.

SANGEET NATAK AKADEMI

2003 . . . 25 years of Prithvi Theatre . . . a time to celebrate . . . a time to evaluate, a time to take stock . . . a time to move forward, look ahead, contribute anew.

In celebration of our 25th anniversary, we invite you to join us at one of our most significant national festivals to date . . . where we look at a range of what Indian Theatre has to offer . . . reaching out to you through venues across town . . . also entering into your spaces at certain community venues . . . presenting a wonderful array of Platform Performances which bring to the fore different aspects of the main show and add to your 'evening at the theatre'. And for those of you whose curiosity about the world of theatre is excited further, we invite you to join us at the Theatre Matters Forums, featuring performance demonstrations, debates, discussion and dialogue.

In a nutshell, this Festival marks our attempt to grasp the wide and comprehensive map of Indian theatre . . . and to share that understanding and excitement with you, our audience.

After all, theatre matters!

We at Orange are delighted to be a part of Prithvi Theatre's Silver Jubilee celebrations with this festival that brings the very best of Indian Theatre to Mumbai. We believe that it is through efforts like this that an appreciation of varied cultures and a respect for our heritage expands our horizons and makes our world a better place.

We are proud to have been associated with the Prithvi Theatre, one of the country's pioneering and most prestigious theatre establishments, for the past seven years, bringing to the city of Mumbai some of the world's most dynamic theatre.

This year we are sure you will join us in this extraordinary celebration of the magic of theatre!
