Synopsis: Mahadev Desai was Mahatma Gandhi's secretary from 1917 to 1942. During this period, Mahadevbhai maintained a daily diary. In this diary, he jotted down the innumerable letters to and by Gandhiji, as well as conversations and bantering, lectures and discourses. All of this made Mahadevbhai a key witness to Gandhiji; besides proving Mahadevbhai's commitment to Satyagraha and the struggle for independence.

MAHADEVBHAI (1892-1942) is a one-person play which attempts to remind us of the times that were, and their devotion to truth.

Working title aims to create a show as captivating and charismatic as the men themselves.
